OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, STORES PURCHASE COMMITTEE, "UNITED INDIA" BUILDING, BANGALORE.

Dated 13th December 1952.

To

All the Indenting Officers.

Sir,

Subject.—Exemption of Customs Duty on Stores Imported for use of State Government.

No. S.P.C. 34984-35130. I write to invite kind reference to letter No. F.9 (8) Econ. 52, dated 12th July 1952, from the Deputy Secretary to Government of India, Ministry of Stores, New Delhi, copy of which is annexed hereto, ordering the refund of customs duty collected on State Property between the commencement of the constitution and the enactment of the Sea Customs and Central Excise and Salt (Amendment) Act, 1951. You are requested to prepare a statement of Imports made during the above period and duty paid thereon. The Collector of Customs, Madras, may be requested with a copy of the statement to refund the same. The relative bills of entry forwarded to you by the Stores Purchase Committee along with the other clearing bills may be kept ready in case the customs authorities require the same for their reference.

COPY OF THE LETTER.

"I am directed to state that the exemption granted to the property and income of the State from Union taxation, vide Article 289 (1) and (2) of the Constitution, is, in so far as Customs and Central Excise Duties are concerned, governed with effect from August 27th, 1951, by the Sea Customs and Central Excises and Salt (Amendment) Act, 1951. As a result, even goods imported by State Governments which were exempted from payment of duty by virtue of Article 289 (1) of the Constitution will again become liable to duty and will be governed by the provisions of the Sea Customs and Central Excises and Salt (Amendment) Act, 1951. I am to add that as the amending Act does not have retrospective effect, duties of customs and excise collected on State Property between the date of commencement of the Constitution and the enactment of the Sea Customs and Central Excises and Salt (Amendment) Act, 1951 are in contravention of the provisions of Article 289 (1) of the Constitution and claims for refund of duty paid are admissible."
